Cheerleaders

Captain Debbie Campbell

Co-Capt. Mary Ellen Butler

The excitement of a kickoff, the thrill of two points, a spirited crowd and the triumph of a Ranger win! These things make it all worth while. All the practice, work, problems, and frustrations are taken in stride; you learn to work together as a squad. Patience, discipline, responsibility and leadership are slowly, but surely learned. And in the end with pride and enthusiasm you can say, "I'm a U. H. S. CHEERLEADER."

The Bridge Builder

An old man traveling a lone highway, came at the evening cold and gray,
To a chasm vast and deep and wide, through which was flowing a sullen tide.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim, the sullen stream held no fear for him;
But he turned when safe on the other side, and built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man," cried a fellow pilgrim near, "You're wasting your time in building here.
Your journey will end with the closing day, you never again will pass this way.
You have crossed the chasm deep and wide, Why build you this bridge at even-tide?"

The builder lifted his old gray head: "Good friend, in the path I have come," he said,
"There followeth after me today, a youth whose feet must pass this way.
This stream which has been as nought to me, To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be;
He, too must cross in the twilight dim, good friend, I am building this bridge for him."
